

Kim Jolly, 43, of Edmonton passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family, on June 23rd at TJ Samson Community Hospital after a long, brave battle with cancer.

She was born on July 20th, 1969 to the parents of Phil and Beverly Lowry, of Edmonton, who survive. She was a member of the House of Prayer Church where she was actively involved with the youth program as a Sunday School teacher and played the organ. She loved her church and her heritage and inspired so many during her illness. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by her husband, Wes Jolly, of Edmonton; two daughters, Jerrica Jolly and Kiley Jolly, both at home; a brother, Kevin Lowry, of Edmonton; maternal grandmother Pauline Elmore, of Edmonton; an aunt, Rita Smith and Husband Wayne, of Winnsboro, LA; father and mother-in-law, Joe & Kay Jolly, of Center; grandmother-in-law Betty Tucker, of Sulphur Well; brother and sister-in-law Richie & Nikki Jolly, of Center; two nieces, Mayci & Bree Jolly and a nephew Dathan Jolly and several cousins and her wonderful church family at the House of Prayer.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather, Rev. Robert C. Elmore and paternal grandparents Hansford and Thelma Lowry of Corbin, KY.

Funeral services will be Wednesday, June 26th, at 1:00pm at the House of Prayer Church in Edmonton with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be at the church beginning on Tuesday at 3:00pm and after 9:00am till service time on Wednesday. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in her honor to the House of Prayer Church cemetery fund.
