

Elvin R. Hare, 83, of Horse Cave passed away Sunday, August 25, 2013 at the Hart County Health Care Center. He was a Barren County native a retired farmer and milk-hauler, a U.S. Army Veteran and a member of the Horse Cave Christian Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Carolyn Terry Hare on January 19, 2013; his parents, Thomas Hare and Ellie Craighead Hare; a brother, W.T. Hare; a sister, Juanita Wingfield and a sister-in-law, Dorothy Hare.

Survivors Include: Brother: Mitchell Hare and his wife, Covella, Cave City; Brother-In-Law: Chester Wingfield, Bowling Green;
2 Nieces: Brenda McGown and Gwen Williams both of Bowling Green;
2 Nephews: Gary Hare, Bullard Tx. and Tim Wingfield, Round Hill;
2 Great-Nieces: Chrsti McGown and Samantha Coplen;
3 Great-Nephews: Matthew Hare, Chris Cannon and Thomas Wingfield;
2 Great-Great-Nieces: Courtney Cannon and Tabatha Hare;
2 Great-Great-Nephews: Caleb Cannon and Paul Hare

He was preceded in death by his wife, Carolyn Terry Hare on January 19, 2013; his parents, Thomas Hare and Ellie Craighead Hare; a brother, W.T. Hare; a sister, Juanita Wingfield and a sister-in-law, Dorothy Hare.

Funeral Services will be at the Winn Funeral Home Chapel: Thursday, August 29, 2013 at 11AM with burial to follow at Hiseville Cemetery with full military honors by the Glasgow DAV Chapter #20. Visitation will be at the Winn Funeral Home Chapel: Wednesday, 4:30PM - 8PM and after 8AM Thursday until service time.