

Jerome "Jake" Logsdon, 82, of Sunfish passed away at 2:50 PM Jan. 16, 2014 at The Medical Center at Bowling Green. The Edmonson County native was owner of Sun Valley Feed Mill, a farmer, an Air Force veteran and a former member of the Brownsville Deposit Bank Board of Directors, Farm Bureau Board, Soil Conservation Board and Draft Board. He was a son of the late C. A. "Kit" Logsdon and Eliza Jane Durbin Logsdon. He was preceded in death by a sister, Mary Logsdon; and five brothers, Daniel Logsdon, Martin Logsdon, Elmer Logsdon, Paul Logsdon and Garnett Logsdon.

Surviving are his wife Yvonne Pierce Logsdon; two sons, Glenn Logsdon and Jim Logsdon both of Sunfish; two daughters, Rita Maston and Deanna Morris both of Gallatin, TN; three sisters, Anna Durbin of Sunfish, Liz Logsdon of Bowling Green and Lina Oberhaus of Muscatine, IA; five grandchildren, Christopher Logsdon, Tommy Logsdon, Nick Logsdon, Ashley Logsdon and Brittany Morris; and two great grandchildren, Abby Logsdon and Jackson Logsdon.

Funeral services for Jerome "Jake" Logsdon will be at 1pm Sunday at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, where he was a member, with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be Noon-9pm Saturday and after 9am Sunday at Gravit Funeral Home.