

Katherine Elizabeth Turner Campbell, age 68, died Friday February 25, 2011. The Allen County native was the daughter of the late Hurley Calister Turner and Laura Katherine Goad Turner.

She was preceded in death by her son Donald Warren Weaver. She was a member of the Scottsville First United Methodist, and a humanitarian, founding the Center for Courageous Kids, supporting the soldiers of Fort Campbell, and many other noble causes.

She is survived by her son John Weaver and wife Melissa of Scottsville, Ky., her daughter Katherine Sikora and husband Andy of Bowling Green, Ky., seven grandchildren, Dylan Weaver of Scottsville, Olan Weaver of Ruston, La., John David Sawyer of Scottsville, Ky., Katie Payne, Charlie Payne, Brandon Payne and Hunter Sikora all of Bowling Green, Ky., her sister, Laura Jo Dugas and husband Wayne of Destin, Fl., and two brothers Cal Turner Jr. and wife Margaret of Franklin, Tn., and Steve Turner and wife Judy, of Nashville, Tn. Several Nieces and nephews also survive.

Funeral Services will be at 11 AM Tuesday at the Scottsville First United Methodist Church. Visitation will be from 2 to 8 PM Monday at the T. W. Crow & Son Funeral Home.

Memorial Donation may be made to the Center for Courageous Kids.