JULY 19 – JULY 23

MONDAY: ODDITIES: In our window we are displaying two hands of tobacco that were found hanging in the garage of the late Howe Ralston, on Brown Street. A note that was inside the sack read:

Grown by J. L. Meadows, Freedom, Ky., 1919. Brought $1.04 per pound.

TUESDAY: An announcement of considerable, and welcomed, interest, one that has been long awaited, was made Tuesday afternoon after the Glasgow Recreation Board signed an agreement with John Botts, local contractor, to construct a swimming pool for Glasgow.

The pool will be owned by Mr. Botts and will be built adjacent to the bowling alley now under construction just off Columbia Ave.

Mr. Botts will purchase the plans from the Recreation Board and build the pool accordingly. For years, what has been a seemingly hopeless project, now is apparently to become a reality. The construction is to begin around January 1, 1961, with completion scheduled by the swimming season of next year.

WEDNESDAY: Mr. Sewell Harlin announces the sale of Central Tire Co. to the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. and that he has leased the building, located at 307 West Main Street, to the Goodyear Service Store. The modern building was built for Harlin Motor Co. twelve years ago on the site of the old Cartwright residence.

The Goodyear Service Store will carry a full line refrigerators, washers, and fine appliances as well as auto supplies.

THURSDAY: The annual Morrison Park Camp Meeting will begin Thursday evening, July 28, and continue through Sunday evening, August 7. Services will be conducted daily at 10:30 a.m., and 7:00 p.m. with Sunday afternoon services at 2:30 P.M. The park is located approximately four miles from Glasgow on Highway 63 or the Tompkinsville Road. The Evangelist this year is Rev. Harry Wood of Milton, Kentucky.

FRIDAY: Lieut. Rondall Stull, Mrs. Stull and sons, Scott and Bert, have returned to the States from Fukuoka, Japan where Lieut. Stull served a tour of duty for three years. They are expected to arrive here the first of the week for a few days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stull before reporting for duty July 30th at Tyndall AFB, Panama City, Fla.

JULY 26 – JULY 30

MONDAY: Approximately $1,010 was taken from the safe at the Cave City National Stores over the weekend as thieves gained entrance through a fan opening in the roof and "peeled" the safe open.

TUESDAY: The Glasgow City Schools this coming year will have a new Guidance Counselor. This is a new position created by the National Defense Act. The Glasgow Board of Education has promoted Mrs. Veachel Peers of the Happy Valley Road from teacher in the first grade to the position of Guidance Counselor for the year 1960-61. Mrs. Peers has been a first grade teacher in the Glasgow School System for twenty-six years.

WEDNESDAY: Mrs. Bill Page (Barbara Edmunds), secretary of the State Farm Mutual Insurance Claims office, here, was recently honored by having her picture published in The National Underwriter, a weekly publication of Fire and Casualty Insurance Company.

THURSDAY: Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Furlong are the proud parents of a 7 lb. 3 oz. baby girl born Thursday, July 21, at Samson Hospital. She has been named Myra Lynn Furlong. Mrs. Furlong is the former Janette Powell. Mr. Furlong is now a senior at Western State College in Bowling Green.

FRIDAY: INTENSE HEAT BRINGS OUT HIDDEN BERMUDA SHORTS: It seems there was one young lad, a member of the Scottie band who vowed that he would never wear shorts. When his mother was packing his clothes for their band camp outing this week, she carefully placed in the bottom of his suitcase, a pair of his dad's Bermuda shorts. With the intense heat, he sent word home for his mother to send him some short pants, and when she inquired if he had found those in his suit case. She was informed that he must have, because he had been wearing some, and evidently wanted some more.
